Maple and Felbar Street Residents gathered in the large vacant lot nearby to hold a gala Fourth of July celebration. Fireworks entertained children and adults alike from both streets, while they enjoyed their barbecued hot dogs and soft drinks. Harley Burning, of 920 Maple, was in charge of the group activity.

Completing their trip the Dyers visited Calaveras County and went through Yosemite.

One of the highlights of the trip was seeing Mark Twain's cabin and also Bret Harte's cabin. The Dyers enjoyed their trip so thoroughly they are looking forward eagerly to their next camping expedition.

Mrs. Wayne Norman, of 1100 Cranbrook, and Mrs. Bruce, left last Sunday to visit Mrs. Norman's parents in Montana. Mrs. Norman is president of her church circle. The Mary Magdalene Guild of St. Andrew's Episcopal church. Her husband hopes to join both soon in this trip.

Here comparing eastern surf fishing with western, are Mr. and Mrs. George F. Haderer from South Hamlet, Long Island. The Haderers are visiting the Wm. H. Rays, of 2837 Onrado for a week out of their month-long vacation. The Haderers are Mrs. Ray's parents. Besides the exciting surf fishing, the Rays entertained, at dinner for the immediate family at the Marineland restaurant. Noting the differences between eastern and western surf fishing did nothing to impair Mr. Haderer's skill as a fisherman. It seems that he brought in a shark, no less.

Charles Coe, of 2854 Eldorado, enjoyed a two-week reunion with his father, whom he had not seen for seven years. Along with four friends Coe traveled back to New York by car.

Traveling up through northern California their first stop was Portola Park. Finding the weather damp and drizzling they moved on across the Golden Gate bridge to Camp Taylor, where they stayed two days.

Lou and both the Dyer boys, Dennis and Dion, fished to their hearts content while Beverly and her daughter, Dieder, kept the camp fires burning.

From there they traveled on up to Fort Ross and then to the Russian River to Clear Lake. In the foothills going to ward Sacramento. Traveling on up to Volcanic Mt. Lassen they toured the Mother Lode country, visiting picturesque Sutters Mill in Coloma, an old mining town converted now into an artist colony.

Completing their trip the Dyers visited Calaveras County and went through Yosemite.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harestad, of 2849 Onrado, also celebrated the Fourth of July with a small party. Enjoying barbecued steaks and a fireworks display with them were the Ed Cantles, the Sagenkahns, and Mrs. Jack Norris. The children joined in the celebration with the adults.
